Cultural News Colombia

The Embassy of Colombia in Austria is pleased to share news about Colombian artists who have become a source of inspiration in different latitudes, as well as initiatives that encourage us to take care of our biodiversity and Colombian athletes with promising careers. This month we want to celebrate diversity and the pride of being our true selves.

Let's sing with Kirlianit Cortés

To celebrate the National Day of Colombia, the Embassy invites children and young people between 7 and 15 years old, to the workshop "Let's sing with Kirlianit Cortés". The workshop will be directed by the teacher Kirlianit Cortés, tenor of Colombian origin, Kapellmeister (Director) of The Vienna Boys' Choir. This title was also held by masters such as Mozart and Haydn. See more information on the last page of this newsletter.

Inauguration of Architecture Exhibition - MAK

In the Museum of Applied Arts / MAK in Vienna you can visit until October the exhibition of the works in Colombia of the Klumpner Chair Design Studio of which the Colombian architect Alejandro Jaramillo is a part.

Some of the projects are: 1.) An Indigenous University in the Tropical Rainforest of Colombia - Architects Anne Lacaton and Ursula Biemann. 2.) Green Corridors / City of Medellin - Architect Alejandro Restrepo Montoya and Architect Diego Ceresuela-Wiesmann, UPB University. 3.) Isla City, Bogota - Arch. Ramon Bermudez and David Kostenwein. 4.) Urban Imaginaries - Prof. Dr. Armando Silva Tellez, Univ. Externada. 5.) Urban Transformation Program of Colombia - Prof. Hubert Klumpner, with UPB Medellin and UNO Barranquilla.

Ambassador Ruiz visited the exhibition with the architects who highlighted that they believe that a City is the sum of all the strategic ideas available, many of which come from Colombia today, which is very good news. The Exhibition can be visited until next October 3rd.

Celebration of the Freedom Year: Afro Cinema

Photo: MinCultura

Until July 16, more than 14 films will be screened, offering a look at films that have been made by or starring Afro-descendants in the region. The exhibition also brings together film productions that are characterized by presenting stories about Afro-descendant communities. With this initiative, the Pacific Alliance joins the commemoration of the 'Year of Freedom', declared by the Colombian Ministry of Culture in commemoration of the 170th anniversary of the abolition of slavery.
